

ESIL 2018 Annual Conference

Symposium of the Interest Group on the History of International Law

“Consumers or Producers of international law? Non-European experiences with the law of nations in comparative perspective”

Manchester, 13 September 2018

9:00-12:30, Venue TBA

9.00 to 10.30: Session 1

Prof. Aiko Nakai (Kyoto University, Kyoto): Latin American International Law as the First Regional International Law: The First Step of Irreversible Relativisation of European International Law

Discussant: Frederik Dhondt (VUB/Antwerp)

Dr. Lys Kulamadayil (Graduate Institute, Geneva): Fairy-Tale International Law

Discussant: Markus Beham (University of Passau)

11.00 to 12.30: Session 2

Dr. Oleksandr Vodyannikov (OSCE): Forgotten Europe’s Borderland: the Rise and Fall of Indigenous System of ius gentium intermariae (X – XVII centuries) and postcolonial histories of Eastern Europe

Discussant: Jan Lemnitzer (University of Southern Denmark)

Frederik Dhondt/Jan Lemnitzer: The state of the field in 2018